

Juneteenth Scholarship Rubric

MEASURES	20 PTS	15 PTS	10 PTS	5 PTS	EARNED PTS
Main Idea of Story	The main point is creatively told and effectively supported by four or more detailed pieces of evidence demonstrating personal community involvement stories.	The main point is creatively told and effectively supported by two or more detailed evidence. Personal community involvement stories.	The main point is told and supports one detailed evidence demonstrating personal community involvement stories.	The main point is not pinpointed to demonstrate personal stories of community involvement effectively.
The Power of the Story	The story conveys emotions through the experience, highlighting commonalities and fostering understanding. There are genuine connections with others to inspire, educate, and motivate the community to act.	The story conveys emotions through the experience, highlighting commonalities and fostering understanding. It educates and motivates the community to act.	The story tells of experiences that highlight understanding. There is a connection.	The story uses hyperbole to tell the experiences to highlight an understanding. There is no connection.
Presentation	The creativity of the graphics, images, and music immensely enhanced the clarity of the narration, pacing, organization, and transitions, helping to produce a high-quality presentation.	The graphics, images, and music immensely enhanced the clarity of the narration, pacing, organization, and transitions, helping to produce a high-quality presentation.	The graphics, images, and music immensely enhanced the clarity of the narration, pacing, organization, and transitions, helping to produce the presentation.	The graphics, images, and music were insufficient to enhance the clarity of the narration, pacing, organization, and transitions, helping to produce a high-quality presentation.
Financial Need	Explain why previous attempts to acquire financial aid were unsuccessful. Give documentation that more than four steps were taken in the process.	Explain why previous attempts to acquire financial assistance were unsuccessful. Give documentation that more than two steps were taken in the process.	Explain why previous attempts to acquire financial aid were unsuccessful. Give documentation of action taken in the process.	The explanation does not state why previous attempts to acquire financial assistance were unsuccessful—insufficient documentation.
Story Informed by Credible Sources	More than four trustworthy sources support the story's claims and help improve its quality.	More than two trustworthy sources support the story's claims and help improve its quality.	A trustworthy source supports the story's claims and helps improve its quality.	No trustworthy sources support the story's claims and help improve its quality.
Residency		Verifiable documentation of Chatham County GA residency.			